HONOURS FOR SENIOR MEMBERS

A very pleasing duty was carried out recently by Chairman, Frank Carberry, when he conferred badges on Senior Members who had attained 40 years continuous membership.

"We like to make some acknowledgment" said the Chairman, "as we consider it the ultimate in good membership."

"I know that most of you have enjoyed a lifetime spent within these walls, and your Committee, over the years, have tried to make the Club a home away from home."

It was fitting that Chairman Frank should be among the recipients as his career of forty years membership, and incessant activity in all roles, is a record of which every member is proud.

Those to also receive the Senior Membership badges were: Alf Bloomfield, Sam Emanuel, Basil Levy, Cecil Davis, Dr. C. C. P. Walker, J. S. Gambier, John Flitcroft, H. H. Hutcherson, Jack Phillips, Dave Tarrant, E. C. Bracken, C. R. Gissing and F. S. Martin.

Unfortunately, because they were hospitalised, the badges were awarded in absentia to W. D. McEvilly, C. E. Forrest, and R. J. Brown.

Apologies were received from the following members who were regretfully unable to attend the function, and they will receive their badges in due course: Sir Frank Packer, H. M. Boucher, H. L. Norton, H. M. Macken, G. W. Cobcroft, and O. Baldwin.

Some hours following the function it was learned that Hans Robertson, who was also due to receive his Senior Membership badge, passed away suddenly earlier in the day. Hans was a well known figure as an Olympian and all round sportsman. He will be sadly missed by his many friends in the Club, and to his family we extend our deepest sympathy.

ONE GAME

Max Glasheen, Killara bowler and regular patron of our Athletic Department, claims that his cousin Mick, has a unique record. He was chosen as a Queensland hooker in the Australian Kangaroo team which visited England in the early thirties, was not injured but played only one match on the tour. Max says that the 26,000 miles there and back for one game would probably be unequalled.

HERE'S BRIAN

We are glad to see Brian O'Donnell now regularly frequenting the Club. Prior to his retirement Brian was, for 35 years, secretary of Newcastle Tattersall's Club.

In March last, Brian was appointed president of the Turf Bowlers' Association of N.S.W. The Association conducts an annual carnival and the participants include Newcastle Tattersall's Club, City Tattersall's Club, and the Tattersall's Clubs of Queensland, South Australia, N.S.W., West Australia and the A.C.T. This year the carnival was held in Brisbane, and for 1970 it will be held in Canberra.

But meanwhile one of Brian's closest activities will be the development of 200 daffodils from Dutch strains.

Brian retains his vice-presidency with the Registered Clubs Association, and this is an appropriate time for a man of his wealth of experience to be available.

THE CHAMPION

We were honoured in the Club by the presence of Bob Marshall and privileged with his practising on our tables.

Bob was the world amateur billiards champion on four occasions. He also won the Australian championship 17 times and has come back to competitive billiards after retiring six years ago. He holds the world amateur record break of 702.

As we write Bob is competing for another Australian title, and the winner will play in the world amateur championship in London next October.

EAST BOUND

Holiday cruising on the Tjiwangi for the next six weeks are David Harlem and his wife. This is David's third similar trip.

Originating from Toorak, Melbourne, he has had business interests between the two cities for the past 45 years, and took up permanent residence in Sydney some 12 years ago when he joined our Club.

David likes his bowls, but as a daily visitor to the Club he will be another stalwart temporarily missing from the gin rummy school.

A GRAND LADY

We are pleased to record the family dinner in the Club given by Frank McCure, relatives and friends, to his dear mother on the occasion of her 88th birthday. In his younger days Frank was Australian breast-stroke swimming champion.

COME ALL YE GOURMETS

Within our Club there is a movement to start a gourmet club. Let us give immediate credit to those who are the foundation members—Eugene Mansour and Frank Starr. Already connoisseurs of fine foods are showing interest. We know well of the Beef Steak and Burgundy Club and the Wine and Food Society. But here we would like to have our own Club interests.

Tattersall's Club can provide every facility for the food and its cooking. It will be nice to have amongst us a selection of food and wine connoisseurs. It may even come to the time when we will have our own Tattersall's Wine and Food Club carrying the imprimatur of Tattersall's Club, and allied to fellow societies both here and overseas.

This plan is now in its initial stage, and intending participants are invited to contact Eugene and Frank. It won't be long before you will be in the position to say "This is big. Remember when we helped to give it a kick off!"

SWEET AND DRY

Justly proud were Sir Brian Crowley and Derek Glasgow as they mingled with guests at the cocktail party held for the opening of the new Randwick racecourse grandstand.

Amongst our many members present with whom we sipped martinis were Jim Comans, Len Plasto, Tim Berlyn, Ronnie Bowerman, Stuart Gornall, John Coen, Jack Shaffran, John Peoples, and Emmet McDermott. About here we stopped sipping.

ALL BLACKS

Norman Jacobs possesses an avid interest in all things pertaining to snooker, and is no mean exponent himself. In our tourney he excelled in defeating Ken McDonald, but met his Waterloo when Lee Bluett pocketed the brown so invitingly left over the pocket, and went on to win.

Ever the sportsman, Norman paid tribute to the winner, and added that he would again be a trier next year.

Talking of years, Norm has been "making a book" since 1924, and has been a member of our Club since 1955. Unostentatious as they come, we wish Norm success and may he continue to pocket the blacks to his heart's content.

BET LIKE THE WATSONS

Pleased we were to see George Watson, who has been a member of our Club for over 40 years. George is a little shy on his own attainments but speaks with pride of his ancestors.

He is a nephew of the late Tom Watson, who was race starter for the AJC for 20 years. George's grandfather was the first ever starter of the Melbourne Cup, and started each Cup up to the early nineties.

His son, Godfrey, then took over this onerous and responsible position. Godfrey died in 1913 and thereby ended an era. The Watson family, until then, were the sole starters of the Melbourne Cup.

Grandfather, George Watson, first introduced hounds from Ireland, and started the Melbourne Hunt Club of which he continued to be Master of Hounds during his life time.

Now, here is a most resounding claim of the Watson family. You have read or heard of the saying that "he was betting like the Watsons", indicating that whatever the settling there would be funds to meet it. It was always historically regarded as having emanated from George Watson's family.

But here we are able to record, from George himself, in his words "Neither I nor my family ever bet."

Though now refuted, you can bet that the saying will continue wherever racing men meet.

INS AND OUTS

Ken Draper is back from his Port Macquarie property.

Jack Loughnan is en route to his interests in Hughenden, Queensland.

DAILY DIP

Lex Bremmer, during winter and summer, wet or fine, enjoys a daily dip in the Manly surf, and each Tuesday finds him in the Athletic Department on the Third Floor of the Club. This keeps him in trim for his job as assistant marketing manager for Australia of a leading oil company.

In the past Lex has been his company's State manager in South Australia, Queensland, Tasmania and N.S.W.

Lex includes horse racing as a hobby, and the training of his two sons, Sandy (10) and Peter (8), as daily surfers of the future.

A CASUAL CHAP

Bruce Cook has the knack of expressing in a casual way achievements which we consider somewhat prodigious.

He is a life member of the Spit Amateur Swimming Club, and recalls swimming there in races when the distance was only 25 yards to the lap and the turning board was a floating pontoon.

Bruce is a foundation member of the Seaforth Bowling Club, and bowlers everywhere appreciate the work of their pioneers. For his golf he is a member of Pymble.

In the field of good service to the community Bruce was president of the Mosman Preparatory School. With his wife, Enid, they are naturally proud of their two sons, Graham and Stephen, both ex-Shore, both Rugby Union minded, both Palm Beach life savers, and both destined in due course to be members of Tattersall's.

Bruce is going to next year's Expo in Japan. We asked if he had been there before, and in that casual manner we have mentioned, he counted back on his fingers and laconically replied, "Yes, in fact I have already been to Japan on 16 occasions."

We look forward to more chats with Bruce, as we feel that there are more interesting items to be unearthed.

NO GREEN EYE

Though he was at Scots College in the same era as our Olympian, Bill Kendall, no claims for high swimming honours are made by Colin Bowes. He is content to keep in nick with his swims in the Club pool, and this assists in keeping him fit for his golf at N.S.W. and Royal Sydney.

BACK FROM THE FARM

Jack Alexander is now domiciled in Sydney, having relinquished his interests at Leeton. These included farming, rice, wheat and sheep on the rich Murrumbidgee irrigation area. He now represents a liquor firm covering the southern districts. Jack's brothers, Allan and Harry, are also Club members.

STRENGTH

A notable gathering was assembled when our Chairman, Frank and Mrs. Vi Carberry, together with Dr. Cyril and Mrs. Eileen Cummins (Cyril is Director General of Public Health in N.S.W.), Alan Frost (now trotting secretary in Queensland) and Bill and Doris Buckley (Bill is president of the NSW Rugby League), dined with Dr. Clive Uhr and his wife. As Clive is the chairman of the Brisbane Turf Club and the Albion Park Trotting Club, as well as several other organisations, the conversation was on interesting and diverse topics.

WALTZ

Good to meet Walter Granger, old Cranbrookian and Bondi Club bowler. Walter is associated with Dalt Disney Productions—two Waltz.

GOOD SPORT, ROY!

At Helen and Roy Bryden's home there is a billiard table acclaimed by champions like Marshall, Squires, and Simpson as being without equal. Little wonder is it that Roy can give Club members such grand exhibitions of his deftness with the cue.

Roy says that our annual tournaments of billiards and snooker ensure that members from near and far meet over the green baize and the not so cavernous pocket, and later mix in the social practices that are sure to follow.

As Roy says "In the thirty years that I have played in the Club's tournaments I have made and cemented many friendships from all parts of N.S.W. But for the matches I probably would never have met these members who are now true friends."

"To win a tournament" says Roy, "you must have temperament. The Club's handicappers are aware of the skill of us old timers, and are doing the right thing in encouraging the younger players. Each year, for those of us who have won in the past, the future becomes increasingly difficult. Good luck to the younger players, we will give them stiff opposition but their day of success is fast approaching—if not now, then tomorrow."

And as Roy rests his cue he mentions "That was the way I first made it—if you can get the proper temperament early then you are half way there."

DINING, WINING AND DANCING

There was a nice, quiet little assemblage when Maurice Anderson accorded his wife a surprise party on the occasion of her birthday. And, of course, there were their very good friends, Marj and Jack Mann, to bolster the bright gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Forrest entertained grand-daughter, Aileen Hughes of Hawthorn, Melbourne, Barbara Hill of Bendigo and Barbara Anderson of Toorak, all ex pupils of Loretta Convent who were leaving on the "Australis" for twelve months overseas. Also in the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. Forrest and Mr. and Mrs. Vidler (another grand-daughter). Everyone had such a good time enjoying themselves the gangway had to be lowered to allow them to embark.

Neville O'Neill and Peter Holohan, and their families, entertained American visitors, Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan and their five daughters. Opportunity was taken to toast the birthdays of Mrs. McGowan, and daughters Wendy and Megan.

The birthday cakes were decorated with the hosts' racing colours of green and gold, and flowers adorning the table were to match. No wonder the predominant colour was green because the names of the horses include Irish Pride, Strictly Irish and two unraced two-years-olds, Irish Rebel and Blarney Lass.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Newhouse and their family held a party for their son, Stephen, on the occasion of his 21st birthday. We know that a good time was had by all, and we extend our congratulations to Stephen.

Bill Casben and his petite wife, Phipp, dined with a party of former rowers from the Haberfield Rowing Club. One nostalgic memory was the selection, on one occasion, of a complete Haberfield crew to represent in the King's Cup.

Bob Lindsay, his wife Vera, and son, Dr. Norman (Bill), entertained their colleagues on a round the world trip, Herschelle and Laurie Maher. Included in the party was Bob's grand-daughter, Gay, now nursing at Royal North Shore Hospital, and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bob Lindsay, Jr., of Newcastle. Main topic was the recollection of great days spent on the Continent, in Great Britain, and some not so happy thoughts of their extensive tour of Russia. Their combined conclusion—Australia is the greatest country in which to live.

TWO GOOD JOHNS

John Norris and John Moon dining together in the Club. So pleased to see John Norris looking so well, and the other John who is an ex-governor of Rotary.

STAFF

As most members are now aware popular steward, Lionel Pearce, retired from service of the Club after 36 years. Lionel, of course, is sadly missed by the regulars at the Bottle Department on the First Floor. His job has been ably filled by Dorothy Bruce.

We are sorry to advise of the passing of Bob Wicks, who retired recently from the Club's employ owing to ill health.

SPORTING CHURCH SERVICE

Two Club members, Homer Jones and Bill Kelso, have for many years organised the annual sporting church service at St. Jude's Church, Avoca St., Randwick.

This service, which is always held on the Sunday evening prior to the A.J.C. Derby day, has become a highlight of the Spring racing carnival.

This year, on 28th September, the sermon will be given by the Bishop of New Guinea, Rt. Rev. David Hand, and health permitting, the Premier of N.S.W., Rt. Hon. R. W. Askin, and a former Governor-General of Australia Sir William McKell, will read the lessons.

Followers of every sport are cordially invited to join the many famous sportsmen and women who regularly attend.

BY GEE

Did you know that ghee is one of the dairy products exported to the Indian markets? Do you know what ghee is? If the answer is "No" to both questions, then we are equal so far in this quiz programme.

Ghee is 98% pure butter fat and a basic requirement for cooking by a large section of the Indian population. We obtained this information at a happy send-off luncheon in the Club for Norm Gorman who was formerly export manager with a large dairy produce company, and now takes up duty as associate director for international trade with a similar Melbourne company.

Assisting in the convivial proceedings was Tom Dein, chief administrator of the company. Tom is a product of Orange. At school he was a football enthusiast playing alongside Charles Cutler who is now NSW Deputy Premier and Minister for Education and Science.

SWIMMING NOTES

by Sam Block

There is no racing in the pool at present, but the boys are putting in a lot of serious training, not only in our own pool, but at the Clovelly Baths where such stalwarts as Norm Rogers, Tom Abernethy, Ted Hooper, Brian Mortensen, Frank Burns and Max Sernack, are Winter swimming with the Clovelly Eskimos. Good to see Norm and Max making the finals during the past few weeks.

Noticed the runner-up in the Native Son Trophy, Charles Coppa, practising his turning, and feel sure he will be a force to be reckoned with during the coming season.

When the racing commences early in October the pool will have taken on a new appearance, as it is undergoing a complete painting job.

For the benefit of those new members who wish to line up on the board, it is only necessary to do a time trial, and any of the Swimming Club officials are available at all times for this purpose.

It perhaps is just as well the swimming season has been completed, otherwise new officials would have had to be found to conduct the events, as Arthur McCamley, Jim Comans, Frank Falson, Jack Dexter and myself, have been laid low with one of the many flu viruses that are prevalent at the moment.

Glad to hear that Willie Band is making good progress following his accident.

A team of nine boys and nine girls left last week for a tour of New Zealand and the accent is really on youth.

The oldest member of the party is 18 years old Rick Wilkinson, and the youngest is child prodigy, Virginia Rickard, aged 10, of Pymble, who could grow up to be one of Australia's greatest women swimmers. In swimming circles she is called "mini marvel." Here's hoping the team performs well.

News of our good friend and sportsman, Arthur Browning, who is spending a few weeks in St. Tropez. He will return home via the United States after a short overseas trip. No wonder you always look so youthful, Arthur.

* * *

Our genial hon. secretary, Jack Dexter, is making good progress and sends his regards to all the members.

GOLF CLUB LADIES' NIGHT

As a genuine indication of their unselfishness, and a tribute to their loved ones, our Golf Club members entertained their ladies at Tattersall's Club on Tuesday night, 5th August last. This took the form of a dinner dance in the Club Dining Room, with the accent on cabaret.

Red candles and serviettes, floral table decorations, a minimum of overhead lighting, pulsating music supplied by the David Macrae Trio and the celebrated Maori vocalist, Miss Joy Yates, all blended to provide a happy atmosphere and most enjoyable evening for the hundred-odd members and their guests.

It was very pleasing to have some of the bowling fraternity with us, John McKell, Bunny Durkin and Ken Williams, who with their wives seemed to be having a ball. Ken is a golfer from not too far way back, and played regularly and somewhat successfully with Tattersall's Club prior to the war. Who knows we may be able to win these boys over to us again.

The thought of the Golf Club Committee in adorning the tables with champagne and a gift for the ladies was well received, and was not marred by the nature of the gift — a jewelled pill box. It was not intended to be any inference as to the use of the trinket.

Vic Vadas, our generous treasurer, hosted the evening and created some amusing sidelights, of which the contest to discover "The Man with the Hairiest Legs" probably hit the jackpot. After several elimination heats, the three glamorous judges were unanimous in awarding first prize to Dick Bell (see photo). Their expression as to the standard of the entrants spoke volumes for the type of member we have at Tattersall's. There could be no doubt that the various wives would endorse our judges' comments.

Another well contested event was that of the "Miniest Mini Skirt" and as Vic Vadas had commented that this need not necessarily be a design factor, left the contestants to their own devices. Pressure from our editor and the censors prohibits any further comments or photographic evidence of the contest, except to say that the male panel of judges was highly delighted.

Judges, Mrs. Frank Agnew, Mrs. Ian Bell and Mrs. Jan Banner with Mr. Dick Bell, winner of the Hairiest Legs Competition.

Although numbers were not up to expectation the evening was such a success that the Committee is already looking to a repeat performance in the near future.

The Golf Club Committee wishes to extend its thanks to the Club for the use of both the Club Room and Dining Room, and to the Secretary and staff for their assistance and service in making the night so enjoyable.

GOOD IDEA TROPHY

Here are the results of the Good Idea Trophy:

N. Rogers defeated R. Callaghan 42-40.

Robert Lipman defeated Frank Burns 41-32.

Robert Lipman defeated Bill Yewdall 41-31.

Robert Lipman defeated Norm Rogers 41-39.

After Norm Rogers defeated Bob Callaghan he qualified for the final. It was an excellent match, and Norm won after having to play two extra points. Meanwhile, Robert Lipman defeated Frank Burns by 41-32, and then went on for a win over Bill Yewdall by 41-31. This was a most convincing win, and put the writing on the wall that Robert was in tip top form for the final.

In the final Robert Lipman defeated Norm Rogers 41-39. I have written in these notes on numerous occasions that you cannot keep a champion down regardless of what sport it is. It was proved again on this occasion when Robert scored his very narrow victory. It was the best match of the competition, and the result was in doubt until the very last shot.

Sam Block umpired the game, and he tells me that in his opinion the standard was as high as he has ever seen in any handball match played in our Club. So, congratulations to Robert Lipman, our Club champion, on this very fine win, and commiserations to Norm Rogers who was a very gallant loser.

At this stage, may I again say thank you to Arthur Browning who is the donor of the trophy. The final, and all matches leading up to the final, showed the keenness of our members to win this event.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP — FIRST SEMI-FINAL

This was a wonderful win for Michael O'Dea who defeated Norm Rogers by 31-29, after a very gruelling match. Michael has improved tremendously, and it would not surprise me at all if he were to win the final. It was a grand win, and Michael deserves our heartiest congratulations.

Here are the results to date.

Second Round:

M. O'Dea defeated N. Rogers 31-29.
(The winner of Lipman/Davies to play M. O'Dea for the final.)

'A' GRADE SCRATCH EVENT — FINAL

The final was played between our evergreen Bill Hannan and Bill Sellen. It resulted in a win in straight sets for Bill Hannan, 21-19 and 21-15. Bill's tactics in this match were a joy to watch, and his strategy when the going became hard in the first set was to slow down the match. He was behind at 19-16 and from that point he won five points in a row to take the set. In the second set he went all out to win, and with 21-15 took the title in straight sets. Congratulations to Bill Hannan for a great win. The umpire was Robert Lipman, who did a good job.

BOWLING NOTES

On 31st July a pleasant change of venue took place when Tattersall's Club Bowling Club journeyed to the northern side of the harbour to play at Warringah. The arrangements for the day were handled by Mark Barnett, but even he must have been pleasantly surprised when his efforts resulted in a roll-up of 53 Tattersall's players.

We were warmly welcomed by Norman Wallis, president of Warringah, who stated that he and his members were pleased to have Tattersall's playing on the Warringah greens after a lapse of some five years, and that he hoped it would not be another five years before he could repeat his welcome.

Our president, Fuz Porter, in thanking Norman for his welcome and the club for its hospitality, pointed out what a successful and enjoyable day it had been, and at the same time promised that it would not be five years before we would be once more crossing the bridge to play at Warringah.

The games on the eighteen rinks were closely contested, with each club winning on nine. With the results of seventeen of the rinks to hand the total stood even at 329 shots. Jim Weymark, killing ends with monotonous regularity and finishing some 25 minutes after everyone else was back in the club house, won 18-15, and the final totals were Tattersall's 347, and Warringah 344.

Trophy winners were:

Warringah—A. Wardley, A. Morrison, A. Busby (17 points).

Tattersall's—F. Empson, C. Hoole, M. Greenberg (17 points).

R. McCaughey, H. Jones, J. Shaffran also netted 17 points, but lost out on the toss.

With those members who deserted the Club in July to bask in the sun on the Gold Coast back on the greens, we can expect improved attendances each week.

24th July—Moore Park.

T. Renensson, E. McDermott, S. Chaterton, 19 points.

31st July—Warringah.

F. Empson, C. Hoole, M. Greenberg, 17 points.

7th August—City.

L. Plasto, H. Davis, K. Williams, 22 points.

14th August—Waverley.

K. Manion, F. Spring, 27 points.

Twentieth Gold Coast Winter Carnival.

Tattersall's bowlers who again took part in the carnival included Gordon Booth, Sam Peters, Keith Urquhart, Bill Munro, Ron Relton, Ken Ranger, Bill Hetherington, George Fleming, Peter McGrath, Lance Williams, Ivan Duband, Alf Wise and Clive Hoole.

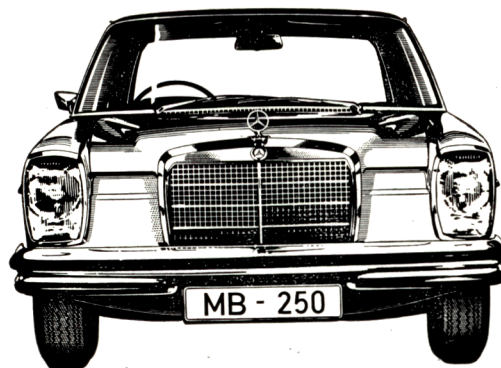

A good time was enjoyed by all, as is usually the case, and a promise to take part next year was the general conclusion.

Sam Peters, now resident at Burleigh Heads, erstwhile committeeman of Royal NSW Bowling Assn., and Tattersall's Club Bowling Club, is again on the job as a member of the Gold Coast Carnival Organising Committee.

THE ROYAL ENTHUSIASM FOR THE TURF

(By C. J. Graves)

I wonder if Charles, the new Prince of Wales, will embrace, as an owner, the sport of racing which has given his mother, Queen Elizabeth, so much pleasure and success.

Horse racing was called the Sport of Kings until Her Majesty changed it to the Sport of a Queen by winning 225 races with 158 horses until the end of last season with $775,126 attached as prize-money.

The investiture of Prince Charles as Prince of Wales, and heir to the throne, prompted the conjecture of whether he will follow the Queen's lead.

His great-great-grandfather, Edward, Prince of Wales, twice won, in 1896 and 1900, the most coveted of all races, the English Derby.

On the death of his mother, Queen Victoria, who frowned on racing, he became King Edward VII. What made his dual Derby victory the more impressive from the sporting angle was that he bred both winners.

Prince Charles has been too busy with his preparation for the Throne to pay attention to horse racing, and what his inclinations might be regarding the turf have remained unapparent. His mother, the Queen, is an ardent breeding and racing enthusiast. Charles' father, Philip the Duke of Edinburgh, embraces other sports, but his enthusiasm for polo reveals him as a profound lover of horses.

The enthusiasm for the turf, however, has marked the Royal Family throughout four generations. Eleven years of drought as an owner failed to dampen the ardour of last century's Prince of Wales. In fact it strengthened his desire to embrace the sport to such an extent that he decided to breed and race his own horses.

He set up stud at Sandringham with a lucky purchase, at 900 gns., of the brood mare, Perdita II. She threw three great racehorses to England's leading sire, St. Simon. They were Florizell, Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee. Florizell won important classics but Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee won the Derbies of 1896 and 1900. In 1909, as King of England, Edward won a third Derby with Minoru.

Will Prince Charles Win a Derby?

King Edward VII's son, King George V, carried on successfully and in 1942 was England's chief winning owner with five winners of 10 races worth $10,535. These included three classics, the Two Thousand Guineas, the Oaks and the St. Leger with Sun Chariot. There was an outcry against racing during those War years, but His Majesty was backed up by Winston Churchill who said it would be a capitulation in the eyes of the Germans to cease the Sport of Kings as carried on in the Royal tradition.

The Queen Mother has confined her racing mostly to jumping events and has had rewarding success, but occasionally she has entertained a flat racer. When on a visit to New Zealand in 1958 she was the recipient of a fine sporting gesture. She presented the Cup for the Royal Welcome Stakes at Trentham. The owner of the winner, Bali Hai, was Sir Ernest Davies, who, in acknowledging his success, said "I now have great pleasure in offering my horse to the most wonderful woman in the world, the Queen Mother."

Her Majesty accepted and Bali Hai went to England to carry her colours in two important successes, the Coombe Stakes at Sandown and the Queen Alexandra Stakes at Ascot. In both he was a popular public favourite.

Her Majesty enjoys the Royal privilege of selecting her bloodstock from the British National Stud. These she races on lease throughout their turf career, then returns them to the National Stud for breeding purposes.

It is not surprising that with such a background Queen Elizabeth took up racing with utmost enthusiasm. When she came to the throne in 1953 she already possessed a string of racehorses. And how well had she chosen them? She ended her first season with 19 winners of 10 races worth $81,689.

Three years later she had a vintage year with 16 winners of 30 races worth $124,422. In both these years she headed the winning owners list for Britain.

Like so many millions of others I am waiting for the day she wins a Derby. The nearest she came to it was her second in 1953, the year of her Coronation, with Aureole who finished second to Pinza. It was of course disappointing, but Her Majesty's first act was to congratulate the rider of the winner, Gordon Richards, whom she subsequently knighted.

Aureole made some amends during the next season with four wins from five starts, two appropriately in the Coronation Cup at Epsom, and the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes named for her father and mother.

And now, what does the future in this royal sport hold for Prince Charles?

BILLIARDS and SNOOKER NOTES

By ARTHUR MILLER

Both the billiards and snooker tournaments are approaching the finals. The players left in the billiards are fairly evenly matched, although Ken McDonald looks to be the main chance.

The snooker is much more open as any one of six players could prove to be the eventual winner. Of course, Old Man Luck is always present in the finals, and invariably makes his impact on the result.

George Mousally and Bobby Lavigne provided an exciting game with a black ball finish, and fluctuations were the rule until the reds finished. Then George made his run looking like the winner, but failed with a careless shot on the pink to allow Bobby to take the game.

I thought that Bobby, under pressure, played both shots very well, and they weren't very easy, either.

Chatting with Jack Chown, who has recently been out of form, he mentioned he made a 140 break in practice last week. Seems he is coming good in time for the Club billiards championships.

Again another upset in the snooker. Tom Farrar, favourite for the tournament, was defeated by George Watson in a hard game, and although Tom played well he could not match the skill of George who is particularly well handicapped.

Facts of Billiard Play.

A good snooker player should know every angle the cue ball takes after contacting the object ball, and also the position when it comes to rest. There is little use potting a red if the next shot on a colour cannot be made relatively easy. This means that control of where the cue ball finishes is as important as potting the object ball.

GOLF NOTES

By Phil Tresidder

Tattersall's golfers were in fine form in the last hit-out at Cromer which attracted a field of 53 starters.

The four-ball winners were Bruce Thomas (27/20) and Ken Clarke (17/13) who made the most of expansive handicaps to aggregate 45 points.

Runners-up were Peter Hodgson (24/18) and B. Rowe (24/18) who piled up 43 points.

Individual member winner was Vic Stone (14/11) who was a study of consistency to register 38 points. Col Pearce (14/11) finished a point behind on 37.

Ken Clarke took out the sweepstake with a formidable 42 points, while the winner of the singles visitors trophy was A. White (12/9) with 33 points.

The next outing at Killara on 18th September immediately precedes the weekend at Moss Vale, commencing 19th September.

This should be a bumper weekend for the Club's golf stalwarts. Thirty-five rooms are booked at Dormie House, and more participants can be accommodated at the Golf Ball Motel.
